VISITING SPECIALISTS

Releasing with Gratitude by Lindsay Mensen

During the Thanksgiving holiday weekend, Lindsay Mensen of KYN, a holistic lifestyle company based in Turks and Caicos, will lead a two-hour wellness workshop founded on the principle of Releasing with Gratitude.

Lindsay is passionate about teaching yoga and working with the body from the inside out. She teaches in a way that brings attention into the present moment, moving beyond daily auto-pilot actions and thoughts, into the felt experience of being present. Lindsay's classes balance effort and ease, strength and surrender, to create balance in the body system, whether simply breathing or standing on one foot. Yoga, Qi Gong, guided meditation, breath techniques, nervous-system down regulation and the body's energy systems are tools Lindsay shares to clear the clutter and connect people to the deeper parts of themselves.
